

In response to the major SEPTA announcements scheduled for April 10, 2025, a rally is planned for April 11, 2025. This event will take place at City Hall in Philadelphia, organized by SEPTA riders, elected officials, and workers. The rally aims to address the impacts and implications of these announcements for the Philadelphia community.