

Fourth of July Holiday Vinyl Record Playlist: Top Five Picks

1. Hall & Oates – “Say It Isn’t So”

Kick off your Independence Day playlist with the smooth, soulful vibes of Hall & Oates. “Say It Isn’t So” sets a laid-back, nostalgic mood, perfect for backyard barbecues or lounging on the porch as the holiday sparks begin.

2. Jagged Edge featuring Nelly – “Where the Party At”

When it’s time to turn up the energy, spin this party anthem. Jagged Edge teams up with Nelly for a track that’s all about celebration, making it an irresistible addition to any Fourth of July get-together.

3. Earth, Wind & Fire – “Let’s Groove”

Nothing gets a crowd dancing like Earth, Wind & Fire’s disco classic. The infectious groove, vibrant horns, and feel-good lyrics are just right for fireworks, laughter, and making memories with family and friends on a summer night.

4. Lady Gaga – “Rain on Me”

For a fresh, modern banger, Lady Gaga’s “Rain on Me” delivers high-energy pop with an empowering message. Blast this track to keep spirits high and add a spark of dramatic flair to your holiday mix.

5. Madonna – “Vogue”

Close out your playlist with a touch of iconic pop from Madonna. “Vogue” brings the glamour and encourages everyone to strike a pose, ensuring your Fourth of July ends on a stylish, upbeat note.

Spin these five tracks on vinyl for a perfectly curated, unforgettable Fourth of July soundtrack that blends nostalgia, excitement, and pure celebration.